Denmark

Updated on 14/03/20

The Danish government has indicated on Friday 13th (evening) that the Danish borders will be closed for entry into Denmark unless a reasonable purpose can be demonstrated (note that tourism is not deemed legitimate). The new measure will be enforced from 14/3 at 12.00 and is in force up to and including April 13th.

Transport of goods will still be possible. All channels of freight transport by road, sea, rail and rail will be kept open without any other control than the normal customs/passport controls on random basis. However, international freight transport (including transit) by road should be operated through the following border crossing points: Frøslev, Sæd or Kruså. Please note that Kruså border crossing point is not accessible for vehicles above 3.5 tonnes. It is recommended for trucks to use Frøslev (E45) border crossing point. Border crossing at Padborg, as well as other smaller border crossing are closed. Freight operations can also be operated through the “blue border” (Øresundbridge and ferries).

The Government is also taking additional measures to ease freight transport. These measures include the introduction of temporary exemptions on driving and resting times rules to ensure delivery of food and grocery supplies.

Slovenia

Updated on 13/03/20

Slovenia is blocking foreign trucks over 3.5t that need to transit the country. The only trucks allowed to cross the border are those having to unload goods in Slovenia (final destination), or if trucks are loaded with postage, medicine equipment or pharmaceutical products and humanitarian help.

Within the country, transport of goods is allowed for: mail service, medical supplies, and philanthropic assistance.

The government also reports that many of those blocked at the SLO-HUN border are Romanians coming from Italy and are trying to get back to Romania. Authorities will work with Croatia and Hungary to find a solution.

Slovenian-Italian borders are also closed for passenger transport by train, and international occasional and regular bus services.
